

A-14 Intellectual Disabilities — Networking and Discussion

Special Education Advisory Committee
(SEAC)

205A

This workshop will provide an opportunity to parents to deepen their understanding of Intellectual Disabilities. Parents will be able to:

- ask questions about the exceptionality
- gather tips about successful strategies for supporting the child
- make connections with and learn from support organizations

Resources

Community Living Toronto www.communitylivingtoronto.ca

Presenters

Clovis Grant

TDSB Special Education Advisory Committee representative for Community Living Toronto

Clovis.grant@rogers.com

Clovis speaks from experience, having a child with an intellectual disability and working as a manager at a homeless youth shelter, where he also shelters a number of young people with intellectual disabilities who are homeless.

Thomas Widstrand

Special Education Coordinator, Low Incidence Programs, Learning Centre 4, TDSB

Thomas.widstrand@tdsb.on.ca

Thomas's areas of expertise include supporting students with Developmental and Physical Disabilities. Thomas has held a variety of teaching positions as well as working as a Special Education Consultant prior to his current role. Thomas is very passionate about teaching students who think and learn in different ways.