

C-16 Engaging Parents of Children with Disabilities While Respecting Cultural Differences

Model Schools for Inner
Cities (MSIC)

205C

Parenting is hard work! It's just as hard when you have children with disabilities. It gets harder when you are faced with cultural differences. Let's laugh, talk and learn together about what we can do and, who can support us, while learning about our different cultures. Let's release it all by having a good laugh at the end of the day.

Great resources will be provided on the day of.
