

C-18

Working Together to Positively Enhance the Climate of our Schools

Model Schools for Inner Cities (MSIC)

206B

Supporting students' academic and social emotional needs is a partnership between parents and the TDSB. So it's important that we develop and maintain healthy relationships in order to continue, learning together and sharing information while actively creating a school where parents feel welcome.

Great resources will be provided on the day of.

Presenter